Box-type solar cooker consists of an insulated box, metallic cooking tray sat inside the box, double glass lid on the cooking tray, and a reflecting mirror fitted on the underside of the lid of the box. The cooking tray is insulated on the sides and bottom. The incoming solar radiation falls onto the double glass lid and passes through it to strike the blackened cooking pots and the cooking tray. The heat is absorbed by the blackened surface and gets transferred to the food inside the pots to facilitate cooking. The mirror reflector is set in such a way to reflect the solar radiation falling on it to the cooker box. Up to four black painted vessels are placed inside the box. The cooker takes 1½ to 2 hours to cook items such as rice, lentils and vegetables. The cooker may also be used to prepare simple cakes, roast cashew nuts, dry grapes, etc. It is an ideal device for domestic cooking during most of the year, except for the monsoon season and cloudy days. It, however cannot be used for frying or chapatti making.

- Cost of the solar cooker gets recovered easily through savings on conventional fuel in few years.
- Regular use of a box type solar cooker may save 3-4 LPG cylinders per year.
- It saves time, as the cook need not be present during cooking in a solar cooker.
- There is no fear of scorching the food.
- It provides better and more nutritious food due to slow cooking.
- It is durable and simple to operate.
- It does not pollute the environment and conserves conventional energy.
- It is an asset to the household and a pride to its owner.
- Temperature varies from 100 – 150°C.
- Cooking Time vary from 10.00 A.M – 3:00 P.M
- Application baked and cooks rice, Vegetables, pulses, meat, cakes etc
- Weight about 14 to 15 kg.

People living in remote area have no access to clean drinking water. Often water sources are brackish (i.e. contain dissolved salts) and/or contain harmful bacteria, and therefore cannot be used for drinking. In addition, there are many coastal locations where seawater is abundant but potable water is not available these causes’ serious stomach diseases. Solar Stills are economical way for removal of dissolved salts from water. Pakistan Council of Renewable Energy Technologies is the only institution in Pakistan that is doing research and development in field of solar and other renewable energy sources.

Basic Principle
A solar food dryer consists of a flat box (frame) placed at an angle, with an open bottom and top, so that the air can circulate. Corrugated metal sheet, painted black, is placed on the bottom of the box. The black color absorbs the sun rays and heats the air above. The frame is covered with glass, transparent plastic foil or a plain garden plastic. The warm air reaches 40 - 50°C, rises and leaves the heating box through the top opening and flows through the drying chamber with the drying screens. Cool environment air is sucked off through the bottom opening.

The dryer’s angle must be adapted to the respective geographical latitude: In Pakistan steeper (35-45°). With a flat angle, air circulation can be improved by adding a chimney. The solar dryer only works with direct solar radiation and works best during dry periods when there is little humidity in the air.

What can be dried?
The solar dryer is suitable for tomatoes, bananas, mangos, apples, plums, tea, fish etc.

How to dry?
Food to be dried is cut in halves or slices or shredded and placed on the screens. Fruit should not be too ripe and juicy to avoid dripping.

Drying time
The length of time with any drying procedure depends on the water content of the food, the temperature and the humidity in the air. Tomatoes and fruit may take several days to dry. The interruption of the drying process at night is an advantage because fast drying produces crusts that obstruct a further withdrawal of water. Any crusts are therefore soaked during the night and the next day the drying process can go on unhindered.

Cover
Food should not be exposed directly to the sun because it changes its colours. Therefore, the top drying screen should be covered with an empty screen or a lid with holes, keeping off flies at the same time.

Position of the dryer
It is not necessary to direct the solar dryer in the course of the day to the changing position of the sun. It is good enough to place it according to the highest position of the sun at midday.

Description:
Solar water heaters rely on the natural circulation of water between the collector and the tank or heater exchanger. As water in the vacuum tube is heated, it rises naturally into the tank, while cooler water in the tank flows down the bottom of the vacuum tubes, causing circulation throughout the system.
